

A Fine and Worthy Project For the University

Thanks!

My dear Mrs. Moody:

Please put me down for * * * * This thing must go through. No one ever deserved the tribute more than Agnes Ellen Harris. She is "all wool and a yard wide." Best regards,

Faithfully yours,

GEORGE H. DENNY.

► The Alumnae Association has been working to collect a fund for the purpose of having a portrait painted of Dean Agnes Ellen Harris to be presented this spring at the celebration of fifty years of co-education at the University. It is our plan to have it done by one of America's foremost portrait painters, Mr. Jerry Farnsworth, so that it may be a contribution of real art to the University as well as a tribute to the magnificent work that Miss Harris has done for the women of our state. The artist has agreed to make an institutional rate for us of $1,000 and will accept this payment in United States Government War Bonds, so we can thus make a patriotic contribution and at the same time accomplish our purpose. We have collected on this fund $805, and you realize that this last necessary amount is the most difficult to raise. Won't you avail yourself of the privilege of helping by sending a small contribution to Mrs. Washington Moody, Chairman, University, Ala.
