THE UNIVERSITY CLUB
House Rules
Revised April, 1947

1. The club will be open from 10 a.m. to 12 midnight on Friday and Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m. on other days. Exceptions will be made only when authorized in advance by the House committee.

2. Lunch will be served from noon to 2 p.m. daily, and dinner from 5:30 to 7:30 daily. Beverages will be served in the dining room, sun parlor, and upstairs rooms by the butler from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to the closing hour daily.

3. Reservations for meals may be made with the manager not more than one week in advance. Reservations may be cancelled at least 24 hours in advance; members will be charged the minimum meal price for unclaimed reservations. At least one third of the dining room space will be unreserved at each meal.

4. All rooms and facilities of the Club (except the service quarters) are open to all members and their wives, husbands, minor children, and guests, with the following restrictions:
   a. Minor children of members may be admitted to the Clubhouse only in the company of a member or a parent (By-laws). Children are not admitted to the second-floor lounge and game-rooms.
   b. A member may invite not more than three local residents at any one time, accompanied by the member, to be his guests in the Club.
   c. The guest suite may be reserved for out-of-town visitors who are guests of the University or any faculty organization for a period of not longer than three days. Exceptions may be made by the Board of Governors. Rates for overnight occupancy are $3.00 for one person, $5.00 for two persons.

5. Out-of-town guests of members may be issued guest-cards entitling them to all Club privileges (except overnight occupancy) for a period of not longer than one week. A member who authorizes a guest-card is responsible for all charges incurred at the Club by his guest.

6. The Club is not responsible for the loss of property of a member or guest. Hats, coats, and other property are to be deposited only in the coat closets on the second floor.

7. No book, journal, paper, picture, statue, or other property of the Club, shall be taken from the Club House under any pretext whatever, except by authority of the Board of Governors expressed in writing (By-laws).

8. Crockery, glassware, furniture, phonograph records, or other property of the Club, broken or damaged by a member or by his guest shall be paid for by such member (By-laws).

9. Dogs are not allowed in the Club or on Club premises.
10. No sales or solicitations are permitted in the Club without written authorization from the House Committee.

11. Members of the service staff are under the direction of the Manager, who is responsible to the House Committee. No employee of the Club is to be sent out of the Club building except by a member of the House Committee (By-laws). No fee or gratuity shall be given any employee of the Club under penalty of suspension of the member and dismissal of the employee (By-laws).

12. Unnecessary noise, unbecoming conduct, alcoholic beverages, gambling, and loud playing of the radios or musical instruments or loud singing (except as part of any authorized entertainment) are not permitted (By-laws).

13. The House Committee will keep a box at the manager’s desk where members may submit suggestions (in writing) for the improvement of the Club.
